A search of the vehicle and occupants led to the discovery of approximately 56 grams of methamphetamine and 1 Gram of Heroin which were concealed in Whitney WELLS' pants at the time of the arrest. AUSA Brittany Jensen accepted prosecution on both Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and Whitney WELLS for violations of 21 USC 841 (a)(1) and 21 USC 846.

Probable Cause

On April 4, 2017, HSI Agents secured Federal Search Warrant C-17-339M allowing them to search the residence of Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and his girlfriend Whitney WELLS. Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL, a known "Tango Blast Corpitos" Prison Gang Member had been arrested by the CCPD a number of times in possession of methamphetamine and heroin from June 2016 through January 2017. HSI Agents and CCPD Officers listened to numerous hours of recorded calls Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL made from the Nueces County Jail to his friends, family and co-conspirators. The following are but a few examples of the statements made by Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL during these calls:

On April 4, 2017, HSI Agents, CCPD Officer, DPS Agents, and Agents from the U.S Border Patrol executed federal search warrant C-17-339M on the residence. At the time of the search warrant Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and Whitney WELLS were not present. During the search approximately 189 grams of Methamphetamine was found in the garage, in the kitchen, and in a room which was identified as Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and Whitney WELLS' bedroom. Approximately 27 grams of Heroin was also found in their bedroom in plain view on the chest of drawers. Additionally, a fully loaded 9MM Smith & Wesson semi-automatic pistol was found concealed in between two cushions in the living room sofa. All the evidence was seized and the drug evidence sent to the DEA Lab for examination.

On April 18, 2017, CCPD Gang Officers were assisting DPS near David and 19th St, Corpus Christi, Texas, when they saw a red Toyota RAV4 which was driven by Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL pull into the sidewalk near an address. Gang Officers saw Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL behind the wheel and recognized him immediately as a "Tango Blast Corpitos" prison gang member who they had arrested numerous times. The Gang Officers also knew that he had an active Municipal Court Warrant (Warrant No. NT00914465, Bench Warrant – Possession of Drug Paraphernalia) and an Ineligible Driver's License. Gang Officers made contact with Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and arrested him for the warrants.

Gang Officers noted that Whitney WELLS was extremely nervous, asked several times if she could leave, and repeatedly adjusted her short cut-off jean shorts. Gang Officers saw what looked like a medicine bottle in Whitney WELLS shorts, so they called for a female officer to conduct a pat down on Whitney WELLS. The female officer discovered a pill bottle in Whitney WELLS' pocket which had a number of pills, and approximately 1 gram of black tar heroin. The female officer also found a plastic bag inside Whitney WELLS' shorts which contained approximately 56 grams of methamphetamine. Whitney WELLS was placed under arrest, and both subjects were transported to the DPS office.

HSI and DPS Agents mirandized Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL and Whitney WELLS separately. Both indicated in writing that they understood their rights, and were willing to make statements without the presence of an attorney.

Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL stated that he did not have any knowledge of the methamphetamine or heroin found in Whitney WELLS' possession. Oscar Daniel VILLARREAL stated that he did not sell drugs, but that Whitney WELLS had a lot of connections, so if anything was found it might be hers.
